Flat , Abbey Lodge, Park Road,
London

A beautifully presented six-bedroom, six-bathroom apartment offering approximately 3,695 sq. ft of exceptional lateral living space, positioned on the fourth floor of the prestigious Abbey Lodge.

An outstanding opportunity to acquire a substantial lateral home within one of London's most distinguished residential addresses, the apartment combines impressive proportions, elegant interiors and an exceptionally versatile layout.

The property immediately impresses with its remarkable sense of space. Arranged entirely laterally, the accommodation offers an excellent balance between expansive entertaining areas and well-separated private bedroom accommodation, creating a layout equally suited to family living and entertaining on a grand scale.

At the heart of the home is a substantial double reception room, providing an impressive setting for both relaxed everyday living and formal entertaining. Generous windows across multiple aspects allow natural light to flood the space throughout the day, while elegant proportions, timber flooring and a refined neutral palette create a sophisticated yet comfortable atmosphere. Air conditioning is installed throughout the apartment, providing additional comfort year-round.

A separate formal dining room provides an additional reception space and is ideally suited to entertaining guests, while the well-appointed chef's kitchen offers extensive fitted cabinetry, integrated appliances, generous preparation areas and a dedicated space for more informal dining.

The six generously proportioned bedrooms provide exceptional flexibility for both family and guests, with each bedroom served by its own bathroom. The accommodation offers considerable scope for additional
